NEWS RELEASE

Subject:

VEHICLE BURGLARIZED

Miami Police are investigating a vehicle burglary that occurred on Tuesday, September 1, 2020, at Biscayne Blvd and 64th Street.

According to investigators, the incident took place at approximately 8:44 p.m., where the victim parked her 2020 white Mercedes in the rear parking lot area of the incident location. Upon returning, she found that her driver's side window had been vandalized and her purse containing miscellaneous personal items had been stolen.

Further investigation from surveillance footage captured a black sedan pull up beside the victim's vehicle. Seconds later, two unknown subjects can be seen prowling around the parking lot while looking into several vehicles just before committing the burglary.

Detectives are actively investigating this case and need assistance in identifying the subjects.

Detectives are looking for:

Suspect 2: Male passenger. Last seen wearing a white tank top.
