Subject:

RENAMING OF MOUNTED PATROL STABLES

The City of Miami Police Department is proud to announce the renaming of the Mounted Patrol Stables at Lummus Park to “Officer Manuel Gomez Mounted Facility”.

Throughout his career, he demonstrated an unwavering dedication to upholding the highest standards of law enforcement, serving as a role model for his colleagues and inspiring trust and respect within the community he protected.

In the line of duty, he sustained serious injuries while working the Three Kings Parade as a Mounted Patrol Officer that left a lasting impact on his life. Despite the challenges he faced, he continued to exemplify professionalism and a strong sense of duty, inspiring his fellow officers, and earning the gratitude of the community he served.

This renaming is a small token of The City of Miami’s immense appreciation for Retired Officer Manuel Gomez’s selfless service and outstanding contributions. The stables will now serve as a permanent tribute to his dedication, sacrifice, and unwavering commitment to public safety.

Please join us for a special dedication ceremony.
